

To identify hot and cold areas of the world

Place the sun and ice pictures on the map to show which parts of the world are hot and which are cold.

Where is the equator?

You can print these pictures out and stick them onto the map or if you have a globe, map or atlas of your own maybe you could blue tack them on there with an adult's permission!