I would suggest searching for books by using the 'Levels' filter, rather than by age, as within ages there can be a big difference in ability. It is more important to match the books your child reads by stage and not age.

There are different types of level, depending on the scheme.

Guide to the link between our school book band colours

Below is a guide to the link between our school book band colours (which should be taped or printed around the spine of the book) and the other ways to filter your search by level and the corresponding Read Write Inc level book colours.

Book Band (same as school reading book)	Read Write Inc books	Oxford Level*	Letters and Sounds Phase
		1	1
Beginning	Sound Blending books	1+	2
Developing	Ditty
Beginning		Level 2	2/3
Developing
Beginning		Level 3	3/4
Developing
		Level 4	4/5
		Level 5	5
		Level 6	5/6

Once you have selected the correct level, have a look through the titles and see which one your child is interested in. You should aim to select a book which matches the phonics sound your child is currently learning in their phonics sessions.

If you are struggling to decide which books to select for your child, please request a Keeping in Touch Call with your child's class teacher and they will be happy to support you.

Additional information to note:

It is also important to mention that not all of the ebooks are phonetically decodable, so are good to build visual recognition of words, but your child will not be able to use phonics to help them work out unknown words.

The Read Write Inc (see below), Oxford Reading Tree Phonics and Project X phonics books are decodable so may be an easier place to start.

- Read Write Inc books – these are great for practising and applying phonics. The sound blending books work on reading CVC words and then, from Red Ditty books, each book starts with some pages to help learn the green (can sound out) and red words (tricky words) before you start reading the story.

These have been designed so that you can work through the books in order. The link below will take you straight to the RWI books.
